MADAME CALVE TO SING IN MARCH.

Celebrated Song Artist To Return And Devote An Evening To Song At Wilman's.

HAS ADMIRATION FOR SCENERY.

Madame Calve, the world's greatest singer, spent yesterday in driving about Daytona and viewing the charming scenes of river, forest and ocean, as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Fogg, of Seabreeze, with whom she traveled on an ocean voyage on their journey around the world two years ago.

Madame Calve expressed her admiration for the beauties and varied scenic attractions of Daytona's surroundings and regretted that pressing engagements permitted her to remain but a short time. This world famous singer is a beauty of a rare type of Latin race. Her dark dress, patterned after the latest Parisian fashion, brought out to the full her rare complexion, the contour of her classic features, the rich mass of glossy hair, and dark flashing eyes.

While at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fogg C. F. Burgman, manager of the Wilman's opera house, called on Madame Calve and after a twenty minute interview obtained an agreement from her to sing here on or about March 5th. The detailed arrangements for this notable event will be completed in the course of a few days between Mr. Burgman and the business manager of Madame Calve. Dr. E. L. Potter of the Clarendon, the managers of the leading hotels of Daytona and many of our leading citizens and lovers of classic opera have promised their full support and financial assistance to make this event the greatest success of the season.

IT LOOKS LIKE CASTRO MAY "CROAK."

Former Venezuelan President Suffers Relapse And The Situation Regarded Critical.

(By United Press.)
BERLIN, Jan. 5.—The condition of former President Castro, of Venezuela, who was operated upon yesterday, to look a sudden change for the worse to day and his condition is now regarded as critical.

A Quartet of Orange Trees.

E. A. Lapp recently planted two rows of orange trees, each one-fourth-mile in length, at his grove on the peninsula, near the head of the Halifax. Mr. Lapp had cleared up the ground for a space on the east side of his grove as a fire guard, and set these 3-year-old trees in a double row along this strip. Standing at one end of the rows, it is a long sight to the other end.

Supplies on the Way.

(By United Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 5.—The Hamburg-American liner Hamburg sailed for Naples today with thousands of pounds of supplies for the earthquake sufferers stored in her hold free of charge.

NEW QUAKE AND MORE DESTRUCTION.

Refugees And Rescuers Go To Their Death In A Succession Of Other Shocks.

FOOD AND SUPPLIES DESPATCHED.

(By United Press.)
ROME, Jan. 5.—Message from Messina today's tells of additional horrors, which resulted from new earthquake shocks. One severe shock was followed by four of less violence, shaking down crumbling walls of the ruined city, and fanning smoldering debris into flames. Refugees and rescuers alike were thrown into a panic, and terrible scenes were enacted before soldiery could gain control of the mobs. New shocks caused hundreds of additional deaths. Appeals were made today to Northern cities to throw open their doors to quake refugees.

Twenty-four warships, twenty thousand troops and two thousand doctors and Red Cross workers are now on the quake scene, and many others are arriving hourly. The condition of the survivors is still desperate.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION MISTAKEN FOR EARTHQUAKE.

New Jerseyans Thought They Were In For An Italian-Like Shake-Up.

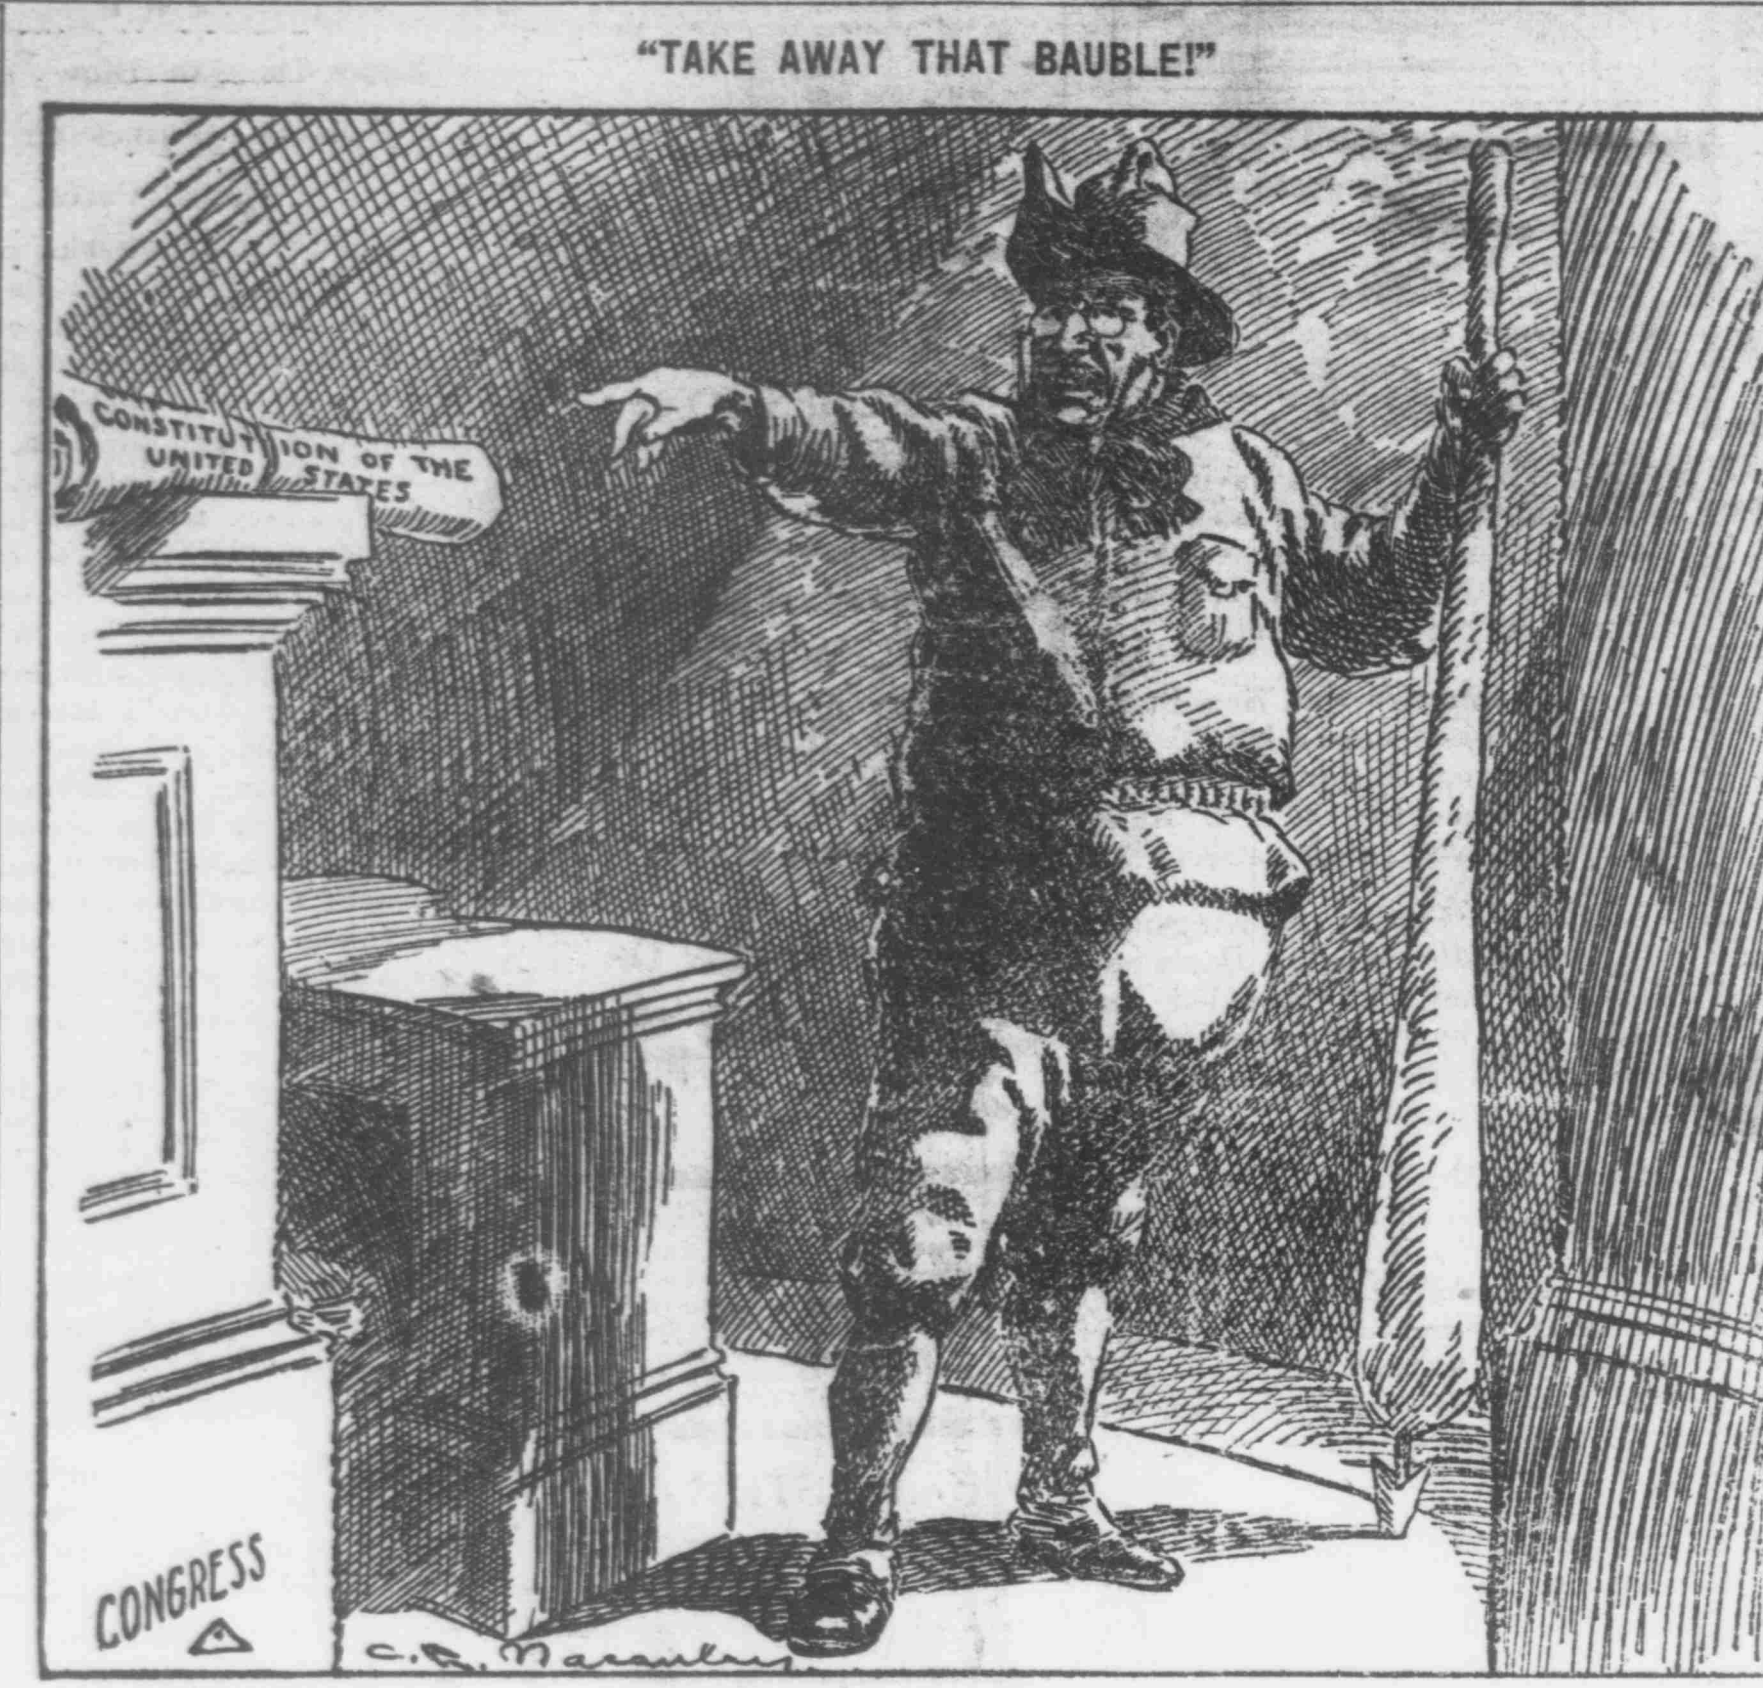

(By United Press.)
CAMDEN, N. J., Jan. 5.—What was believed last night by thousands of persons within a radius of fifty miles to be an earthquake shock was today disclosed as the effect of a terrific dynamite explosion in a quarry of the Keystone Quarry Company, near Morris-town.

Orange Blossoms.

Francis N. Coleman and Miss C. Short were united in marriage Monday evening at about 8 o'clock, at the residence of W. H. Edmondson, Notary Public, who performed the ceremony. Miss Short is from Port Orange, and Mr. Coleman is a member of the firm of Brown & Coleman, tin and sheet metal workers, of this city. T. B. Brown and H. H. Brittle were witnesses to the marriage.

COMMODORE ALLEN WILL DYNAMITE OBSTRUCTION.

The Old Houseboat Submerged In The Haulover Canal Will Be Blown To Pieces.

The St. Augustine Record, of Dec. 31, says in reference to the Raymond note published in the Daily News, of Dec. 29, that Commodore Allen, whose beautiful lodge is in course of construction at the Haulover canal, had been in communication with the Government, and that he had received instructions to dynamite the obstruction which lies in the Haulover.

It seems that about six months ago a large houseboat, owned by Titusville paries, was beached on shore of the Haulover. Recently it slid into the channel and became submerged, and this is the obstruction of which Mr. Raymond wrote, and which Commodore Allen will remove.

Commodore Allen, the Record quotes, says the inland canals are in good shape, and are coming into prominent use for the pleasure and other crafts en route from St. Augustine to the lower coast.

Death of Conductor Bugbee.

Henry E. Bugbee, for many years a passenger conductor on the Florida East Coast Railway, died Sunday, at his home in St. Augustine. Mr. Bugbee was a prominent Mason and Elk, and had many friends in Daytona.

THE ELKS' INSTALLATION HAS BEEN POSTPONED.

Will Occur A Week From Friday Evening—Non-arrival of Paraphernalia The Cause.

Daytona Lodge, No. 1090, will not be instituted Friday night as arranged, according to a telegram received Monday from Henry S. Chubb, District Deputy Grand Exalted Ruler. It seems that Mr. Chubb is in receipt of a telegram from the Grand Secretary stating that it would be impossible to get the paraphernalia here in time for installation Friday evening of this week hence the postponement until the same evening of next week.

See De Armonds Tonight.

You are promised a rare musical treat at the Baptist church this evening if you go out for the De Armond concert. This company comes highly recommended, and already tickets have been sold for a fine house. This is the first of a series of similar events to be given at the First Baptist church this season.

A touring party of twenty-five is expected at The Stillman this evening.

Miss Ruth Brohm of Port Orange was in the city this morning shopping.

A new sign was hung in front of The Schwegler Novelty Store, on S Beach street, yesterday.

AUTOMOBILE FOR CHARTER—Four-cylinder Stevens-Duryea, hour or trip, call Morgan House, phone 110.

Sheriff J. R. Turner was in the city from DeLand Monday for the last time in his official capacity as sheriff of the county.

Orville and Billy Peters, Jr., Geo. Foote and a school class, Justice Lee, left yesterday noon for the north to attend school.

Several oak trees were cut down in the park on Ridgewood avenue between Volusia and Magnolia avenues this morning.

WANTED—An all around first class workman to take charge of blacksmith and carriage shop immediately. G. A. Foye, Daytona, Fla.

School is in session again after the holiday vacation. Prof. Wright reports the huge school in splendid shape. Several new scholars have entered, making the enrollment the largest in the history of the school.

W. R. French of Red Bank, N. J., who is attending Stetson University, came up from New Smyrna, where he is spending the holidays with relatives, and was the guest of Raymond Ohl, on S. Beach street, over Sunday.

Hair dressing, shampooing, facial massage, scalp treatment and manicuring done by expert operator. Ladies attended at residences. Troy House, Volusia avenue, phone 69, Atwood Pharmacy.

Hankins says:
A very illiterate woman who is fond of gossip and who makes it a business to rent rooms each season, lately put out a sign which read as follows:

WANTED—RUMORS.
That's what we want—substantial rumors of satisfied customers.

HANKINS, The Druggist,

Where Volusia Meets Beach.

LINE UP, AUTOISTS, AND MEET ELKS.

The Invitation Is To Everybody Owning a Machine To Meet Visiting Delegations.

Visiting delegations of Elks will be here on the incoming trains Friday of next week and it is the wish and ambition of Daytona Elks and prospective Elks that Daytona do herself proud on that occasion.

On Friday evening of next week the local organization is to be effected, and the visitors are to conduct the initiatory ceremonies. Daytonians wish to give the visitors a cordial reception, and show them the rare beauties of the Queen of the East Coast.

Hence it has been decided to ask everybody with automobiles to assemble at the Florida East Coast Railway station in time to "line up," and greet the visitors who may arrive on the first afternoon train, which, according to the new schedule arrives at 1:15 o'clock p. m. A spin will be had around town, and the autos will assemble at the depot in time for the second delegation arriving by the next train, which is due at 3:21 p. m.

It is hoped everybody will go whether prepared to accommodate a visitor or visitors as passengers or not; go as an escort for those who will prepare for the guests, and help to make an imposing array, and show the visitors that Daytona, as an automobile center, is in the van guard.

The institution of this new order of Elks in Daytona is of much more than passing interest, and the visiting Elks from Orlando and from St. Augustine will comprise the representative young business men of those cities as the gentlemen to be inducted into the order here comprise the representative young business and professional men of Daytona.

PLAYING PECKA-BOO FROM THE HEARSE.

Auto Party Witness a Scene More Ludicrous Than Incongruous
Down New Smyrna Way.

Sunday the Eingham & Maloy funeral directors had a funeral among the colored folks down the New Smyrna way. There were the customary ceremonies, the large funeral cortege flowers and all the concomitants of a well-regulated colored funeral.

After the interment, and all were departing for their several homes, the procession was passed by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Hoene and Mrs. E. W. Greene in the Home auto, and in the hearse, instead of a corpse, were a half-dozen (more or less) saucy-faced, chalk-eyed, laughing little pickaninnies playing pecka-bo with passers-by through the curtains.

The picture was both incongruous and ludicrous, and the auto party wished heartily for a kodak snap-shot to show the way things are sometimes done in the Southland.

THREATENING TROUBLE IN PERSIA.

GREATER TROUBLE IS FEARED.

(By United Press.)
TEHERAN, Persia, Jan. 5.—Samsan Khan, the leader of the insurgent forces in Ispahan district, is today in complete control of the territory after three days' fighting in which 500 royalists were killed and injured and 100 captured. The insurgent losses were light.
So far Europeans have not been molested, but the rebels are so enraged at the government's extortions that there is danger that they will attack the British consulate, where the governor is refused, unless he and the other refugees surrender.

Found Pear Skull.

E. B. Whitcomb, John Fero and L. O. and J. W. Reese returned Sunday from a several days' outing on Mosquito Lagoon in the last-named gentleman's yacht, the Pen-Hur.

They caught an abundance of fish, principally bass and trout, and in their rambles ashore J. W. Reese found and brought home a large bear skull in perfect condition. They all enjoyed the trip immensely.

IN PIANO CONTEST MONDAY SOME SURPRISES SPRUNG.

Miss Jean Frances Conrad Has Large Vote—Ormond School Makes Appearance.

Several surprises were sprung in the Bush & Safford Piano Contest with the last count, the biggest of which was the jump from next to last to fourth place by Miss Jean Frances Conrad.

The Daytona High School had a vote of over 700,000, and it looks right now as if the real contest would be for second place, with the Halifax Rifles Eastern Star, Miss Morgan and Miss Conrad there at the finish. But, who can tell.

Outside of Daytona, Wilman's Opera House clinched its lead by casting a large vote, and the Kingston School passed the Seabreeze Congregational church. Miss Elsie Coates moved up several places, having a vote this time larger than all she had had before.

Some said the High School students would not stand the pace, but they seem to be coming stronger every day. The finish is a long way off and some entirely new candidate may be the dark horse.

The Ormond School makes its first appearance and may prove a good runner. Miss McCann was another new candidate.

THE NEW SCHEDULE EFFECTIVE.

The Trains of Florida East Coast Railway Now On Winter Schedule.

ALL THE TRAINS ON TIME.

The new time card of the Florida East Coast Railway, as previously announced, went into effect at midnight and trains are now running on the following schedule:

Train No. 36 will leave Knights Key at 8:30 p. m., arriving at Daytona at 8:24 a. m.; arriving at Jacksonville at 12:40 p. m.

THORNTON HAINS' STORY IS BADLY SHATTERED.

Prosecutor Involves Hains In a Mess of Contradictions In The Cross-Examination.

(By United Press.)
FLU' SHING, L. I., Jan. 5.—Thornton Jenkins Hains' well-rehearsed story told in the direct examination yesterday was badly shattered under the rapid cross-examination propounded by Prosecutor Darrin. Hains stood the cross-examination well for a time, but finally began to show the strain and as question after question was fired at him he finally began to contradict statements made yesterday.

Darrin compelled the witness to repeat in detail all that he told yesterday, and managed to involve him in a mass of seeming contradictions.

EDGAR ALLAN POE AND COTTAGE WHERE CENTENARY WILL BE CELEBRATED.

The Poe cottage on Flatbush heights, New York city, will be the scene of impressive ceremonies on Jan. 19, the one hundredth anniversary of the birth of the poet. The little cottage was occupied by Poe at the time of his wife's death and was associated with some of the most trying days of his stormy and eventful life.

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, Jan. 6.—Mr. and Mrs. Fix, tourists who have been occupying a beach cottage for several weeks, were summoned by a telegram announcing the serious illness of Mr. Fix' father and left yesterday afternoon on their return to Indiana.

Monday's arrivals at the Seaside Inn were: J. S. Montgomery, wife and two sons, and brother, H. P. Montgomery and wife, of Kentucky.

E. Rector has accepted a position with the Bunch grocery for the season. Mr. and Mrs. Austin have rooms at the Bishop house on Seabreeze avenue, meantime, the foundation work on their home on the corner of Palmetto and Seabreeze avenues is going forward.

Mr. and Mrs. Lablin and children, of Canton, Ohio, have taken the Beardsley cottage, Idlewild, for the season. G. H. Holland's boat, the Wide-Awake, which has been on the ways for the past three months, was launched Sunday, and will soon be in commission for the winter work.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan and friend, Mr. Clary, prominent hotel people of Sanford, Maine, have taken the west apartment in the Esch cottage on the corner of Valley street and Seabreeze avenue.

Mrs. E. A. Freeman entertained her French and painting class at her home Saturday afternoon. Some new literary games were played, Miss Grace Burdick winning first prize but all present capturing some pretty memento of the very pleasant occasion. The conversation was carried on in French. Some stories were read, and dainty refreshments served. The young ladies enjoying the afternoon were: Misses Swartz, Clare and Jessie Tomlinson, Ethel Strothers and Grace Burdick. Miss Ina Alloway was the guest of the afternoon.

The bathers out on the beach the fishermen hanging over the pier and trolling back and forth, the automobiles and carriages passing and re-passing made the beach unusually gay yesterday afternoon. All Daytona comes over to try out our new roads, and having tried them out they come again and again. The three communities Daytona, Seabreeze and Daytona Beach have a cinch on the best that sea coast towns can afford—this is the verdict of the many tourists who find this an ideal winter resort.

Electric Current Cut Dido.
Sunday night as people were gathering at the Baptist and Congregational churches the lights went out without a second's warning and there was hustling for a few of Uncle John D's sort. About the time temporary lights were supplied the trouble was located and the wicked oil was dispensed with.

GUS WANTS TO SEE
COLOR OF THEIR COIN.

Thinks He Can Blow Escaping Gasoline Fumes In His Rivals' Faces.

Gus Grosjean, the dashing and daring chauffeur for the E. H. Hotchkiss 4-cylinder, 30-horse power Pope-Hartford gasoline car, evidently takes no stock in the talk that says they can move by him in a dash down the beach, or a dash anywhere else for that matter.

Gus has been trying out his big car alongside of others and is of opinion he has about the fastest in the bunch, and he is not only willing but rather keen for a try out of speed with machines of his class, and especially is he anxious to go against some who have made comparisons figuring him last in the finish.

He has driven his machine 59 miles an hour without special effort and without the most favorable conditions and he thinks that with a right lively competitor alongside he might make it even time and at least eliminate that odd second.

At any rate Gus is willing to back up his judgment, so if you think differently all that is necessary is for you to tell Gus so and show him the color of your coin.

The Modern
Seven Wonders

Daytona's Incomparable Ocean Beach.

One of Daytona's crowning glories is her incomparable beach. No one who ever set foot upon its smooth, packed sands; no one who ever pedaled a bicycle over its expanse; no one who ever drove a prancing pair of horses and listened to the popping of their steel shoes upon its asphaltum-like face; no one who ever steered a high-power automobile down the broad stretch of wave-washed and surf-packed sand but realized that it is a world-beater, a world-wonder. Go stand upon this wide speedway and see the happy souls flit by in joyous mood, and answer whether this is not one of the seven modern wonders.

The Placid, Pelucid Halifax River.

Where think you is water with more picturesque surroundings? Nearly a mile wide, fringed with tropical vegetation, artistic cottages with roomy verandas looking out upon her bosom, gamey food fishes in countless numbers beckoning, as it were, to those with rod and reel; her bosom flecked with duck and coot and snowy-winged sea birds, which sit about as if for the sport of bobbing upon her waves; watch that lubberly old white-headed pelican pouch a fat mullet, and that fish hawk struggling upward with his floundering load he snatched from the water.

See the beautiful launches, spick and span, their hampers and lockers bulging with refreshments both solid and liquid ready for a cruise upon her beautiful surface. Take out your field glass and sweep the river from Ormond bridge to Ponce Park light house, then say whether the Halifax isn't a thing of beauty and a joy forever, and one of the modern wonders.

The Enchantingly Picturesque Ridgewood.

Ridgewood Avenue is upon the crest of a broad ridge, straight as the crow flies, and the wide-spreading branches of the heavy-trunked liveoaks extend their giant arms across this magnificent vista, forming an arch, and from these extended arms great festoons of Spanish moss sway as the trade winds from tropic seas fan them. Looking straight ahead down this white shell street one has the impression of a fairy path with elfish dapples, but as you move along and cast an eye first to the right and then to the left you see distinguished cottage homes in the most delightful settings.

See the glistening leaf of the grand magnolia which nature has varnished as no artist's brush ever could; and the cabbage palms with their burdens of showy fruit and swaying palms; see the lovely holly with its exquisite berry; see the climbing vines running riot in the trees see the cryptogamous forms which gain a foothold on the great oaks and the stately palms, and surely you will join in the chorus and say that this is a world wonder for beauty.

Surpassing Beauty of Our Cottage Homes.

No one of Daytona's attractions, perhaps commands more nearly universal attention and praise than does the artistic cottage. The owners of these charming villas hail from every corner of the country and they bring their own architectural plans and build upon them, and as the architecture of one section of the country differs from the architecture of another so do our homes differ in outward appearance and structural beauty from one another. There are no monotonous rows of strikingly similar buildings but the eye, as it sweeps by, is treated to a kaleidoscopic change which keeps the mind wondering "What next?"

It is not only the exterior of many of these homes that rivets attention; within they are models of convenience, and the finish and furnishing give evidence of the elegance and cultivation of those who worked it all out. Indeed it is the interior arrangement and the artistic furnishing and shading, more than the exterior appearance that give a surpassing charm to Daytona homes. This feature justly merits prominence as wonder number four.

Streets and Pavements the Most and Best.

Why the Architect of the Universe chose to give to Daytona the most admirable, the most picturesque natural setting of all the cities of the South is not revealed but that such is a fact must be apparent to the most superficial observer. With such lavish wealth of natural beauty it became an easy thing for the hand of man to give the little finishing touches which have brought out the colors and outlines of the big picture.

Man did all this in the laying out of the streets with their wide margins of parkage. The entire city becomes a great park, with driveways intersecting, miles upon miles of driveways so good as to attract motorists from all over the continent.

And as for pavements, pavements that look and act like granite,—where else between the eastern and western seas are so many miles in proportion to inhabitants? The pavement question stands with the street as one of the chief drawing cards. Till some unheard-of place reports more and better, Daytona throws down the gauntlet to the world.

Squirrels, Flowers, Birds and Fruits.

Whatever one's shortcomings and however indifferent or even callous one may be to many things, the mere mention of "squirrels and flowers, birds and fruits" will send a thrill that is reflected in distended pupils and pricked ears.

For every visitor with a spare "goober" there is a bunny ready to come out and accept your gift. He will sit bolt upright and gnaw into the meat, casting furtive, saucy glances at you meanwhile.

Flowers! Usually fresh and blooming the year 'round. You are reminded of Goldsmith's couplet where Smiling spring its earliest visit paid And summer's lingering blossoms are delayed.

In one yard roses of variegated hues predominate, another household have a penchant for the poinsettia and the premises are aflame; another is hidden in a jungle of tall cane. Variety is the spice of life and here is where you find it.

The birds flit in, and with their joyous notes help to give fullness and symmetry to the picture.

As for fruits, choice citrus fruits, Daytona yields the palm to none for quality and quantity per acre. There are scores of citrus groves in proximity to the city, branches bending to the earth with their burdens of luscious golden globes, which for beauty, prolificacy and all desirable qualities would truly astonish.

The Fastest Autos and The Finest Out.

The seventh world wonder, do you ask? Come, whether from Missouri or from Maine, from Kalamazoo or from Timbuktoo and you will be "shown." Here is where world's records for speed are broken with every recurring season. Autos the biggest, the fastest and the finest are on daily parade and the big show is as free as the pure artesian water from the thousand flowing wells. It is a continuous show with constantly shifting scene.

Everything goes, from a 2-horsepower up to a 200-horsepower, and all degrees of speed from a canter to a two-mile-a-minute clip. You will probably catch the spirit and when you do the roads and the beach are yours. The Florida sunshine is free, the balmy ocean breezes are free, the birds and squirrels and flowers are free, the sparkling fountain water is free and you will have to go down in your wallet only for coin for the auto and bed and board.

This is no fanciful picture; it's all here. It is drawing other thousands and holding them enthralled, it will charm and hold you. Come and see.

NEWS OF THE HOTELS

The Ridgewood.

S. W. Weaver of Tennessee, Mr. and Mrs. Allan T. Clements, Flushing, N. Y., Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Andrews, Kennebunk, Me., and Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Wayne, Syracuse, N. Y., arrived at The Ridgewood yesterday.

ST. PETER CHECKS UP
THE ITALIAN COUNT.

One of Volusia County's Eccentric Characters Joins The Silent Majority.

In the passing of Count Bertola, who died Wednesday in the asylum at Chatahoochee, a conspicuous Volusia county figure passes. He was an Italian Count who tired of the empty mockery of the Italian courts and came as an adventurer to America.

Instead of hunting an heiress with money to rehabilitate an old decaying castle he assumed the menial but important role of care taker of the DeBarry estate at Enterprise.

He made friends and became prominent in local politics. He began to retrieve his fortunes, but the big freeze of '94 swept him off his feet. He would not surrender the fight but went to De Land and sold fertilizer as a means of livelihood.

He was known personally by many Daytonians, especially the older residents.

In Extremis.

Late one night a clergyman was called out to minister to an old man—a worker upon the adjacent railway—who was supposed to be dying. The summons was brought by another old man, the elder brother of the stricken one. While he was bustling about, making preparations for departure, the clergyman forgot momentarily the social status of his visitor and asked, "Is he in extremis?"

The old man was not going to be beaten. "Aye, he's right in, your reverence." After a pause he added as a clincher: "Clean in, poor chap. Right up to the neck, sir."—Cornhill Magazine.

He Had Been There.

Rodrick—Howdy, old man? We are going on a camping trip soon. Did you ever enjoy a camping trip where you had to do your own cooking and sleep beneath the stars? Van Albert—Noppe—Rodrick—What? Do you mean to say you have never been on a camping trip? Van Albert—No. I mean to say that I never enjoyed one.—Chicago News.

Hospitality.

Mamma—Tommy, I see you took two pieces of cake instead of one, as I told you. Why did you do that? Tommy—Well, mamma, I was playing that another little boy was visiting me, and I knew you wouldn't mind me giving him a piece.—Chicago News.

Learning Early.

A Sunday school teacher had been telling her class the story of the good Samaritan. When she asked them what the story meant a little boy said: "It means that when I am in trouble my neighbors must help me."—Universalist Leader.

Won't Figures Lie?

Mrs. Hoyle—I am just twenty-three Mrs. Doyle—I don't see how you figure it. You were twenty-two when you had your black silk, and you haven't had a new dress for ten years.—New York Press.

He Crowded Too Soon.

She—You'll be glad to learn, dear, that I've got out of visiting our relatives. He—Grand! Splendid! It hung over me like a cloud. How did you manage it? She—Oh, I asked them here!

At Last.

Mrs. Silas Bennett was a philosopher. On a certain dismal occasion some of the neighboring women were confiding with her. With commendable cheerfulness she replied:

"I've raised four girls and three boys, expectin' every time they'd be twins and red headed like their Grandpa Bennett, an' yet they ain't."

"An' I've worried considerable over smallpox breakin' out in my big family. So fer taint."

"Last summer durin' July an' August an' mebbe part of September I was real melancholic, fearin' I'd got an appendix, but I guess I ain't."

"An' through it all it never once occurred to me that I'd be the one to fall through them rotten old meetin' house steps an' break my leg in two places, but I be."
